"Go From Home To Learn The News."

An item published in a paper in a neighboring town to the effect that Mr. W. J. Romans of this place had let the contract for the construction of a new and up-to-date opera house in Lancaster, is being extensively copied. Being news to us, we sought Mr. Romans and asked him about it, and he tells us it is also news to him, and that he has no more move even in contemplation.

Old Timer On The Job.

Hon. John Sam Owsley of Stanford came over Tuesday to look after the prosecution of the criminal docket during the temporary absence of George Florence. Sam is well qualified for this position having served the district in that capacity for many years and in a very acceptable manner. He will continue to look after these duties until Mr. Florence is able to resume his work, or until the end of the present court.

Capt. Doty "Promoted"

Capt. J. A. Doty is stepping high these days and wears a smile that won't wear off. The reason for the good humor of this clever gentleman is that Gov. McCreary has made him a Colonel on his staff, and to say that the promotion pleased the Captain does not half express the compliment was doubly appreciated because of the fact that it was from the hands of an old comrade in arms, both of them having worn the gray.

George Florence Sick.

Commonwealth's Attorney George D. Florence was compelled to abandon his post on Tuesday and go to his home in Stanford. He was suffering with a severe cold, and it was feared that pneumonia would develop. We sincerely hope that the latter will not prove true, and that the clever gentleman will be able to resume his duties in a few days. By courteous and fair treatment Mr. Florence during his short service at the Lancaster bar has won a host of friends, both among attorneys and citizens, all of whom will regret to hear of his illness.

Nicholasville Wet.

After a long drawn out legal battle, Nicholasville is to have open saloons, the Court of Appeals having recently affirmed the decision of the Jessamine Circuit Court as to the recent local option election held there.

Better Restrain The Goat.

A man named Hatzel is suing the Modern Woodmen Of America for $10,000 for alleged rough treatment received during an initiation ceremony, he claiming that the ceremony resolved itself into a sort of assassination. The local lodges had best take warning from this and restrain their goats for fear of injury either real or imaginary might befall some of their candidates.

He's Back Anyway.

You often hear the remark nowadays that "he can't come back", as being applied to men who at some previous time were prominent in some walk of life, but who have become members of "has been club". This remark is now being heard on all sides in regard to Col. Roosevelt. Well "Teddy" is back anyway, boots, spurs and a saddle, and his hat is in the ring, it now remains to be seen whether or not his return will be productive of any great gain to him.

Wish It Were In Our Power To Aid Him.

Mr. Roy A. Haines the genial editor of the Hillsboro O. Dispatch is being urged by his friends in the Sixth Ohio Congressional District to become a candidate for congress. Mr. Haines is a son-in-law of Mr. W. B. Mason of this place, we have the pleasure of his acquaintance, and know him to be a clever gentleman of splendid qualifications, and we wish circumstances would permit of our being of assistance to him, provided he concludes to become a candidate.

Should Be Stopped.

Over in Bourbon county last week a shooting contest was held between two expert shots at live pigeons, each one striving to see which could kill the most out of one hundred birds released. This seems to us to be a wanton, ruthless and cruel sport and should be dispensed with. What has become of the various societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals, the Audubon societies, and like organizations which have the care and protection of animals and birds for their object, that they do not put a stop to such proceedings.

Editor-Farmer.

The Lexington Herald has the following complimentary notice of Harry McCarty's work as secretary of the State Farmers Institute. We hope Bro. McCarty will not become so infatuated with his new work as to induce him to exchange the quill for the plough share.

Secretary Harry McCarty, of the Agricultural Department, was indefatigable in his work of handling the institute. He is an enthusiastic student of farming and if he proves as industrious and successful in his new field of activity as he has shown in the editing and managing of a first class newspaper plant the farmers of Kentucky will have just cause to be proud of their Commissioner and his efficient secretary.

"Uncle Sam" After "Pin hookers."

Outsiders who purchase crops of tobacco and place them on the breaks or loose leaf market for speculation are known as "pin hookers". The U. S. Government requires that every person who buys and sells leaf tobacco, be the quantity large or small, shall have a license and shall keep a correct register of the amount bought, from whom purchased and the postoffice address, and to whom sold, and shall turn the register in, to the Internal Revenue Collector, at the end of the season or at such time as shall be designated. All of this costs nothing save the making of the application to the Collector, but it is a government requirement. Some of our farmers have been pinhooking, and Uncle Sam is keeping a sharp lookout for those operating without a license, so we would advise that if you have no license you secure one at once, as there is a heavy penalty attached to purchasing the weed without complying with the government requirements.

We Welcome His Return.

Capt. Phil Price, one of the most popular conductors on the L. & N., has been transferred from his present run between Cynthia and Lexington, and put back on his old train between this city and Rowland. Capt. Price had charge of this run several years ago, and his local friends will be glad to welcome him back again.—Richmond Register

It will seem like old times to see Phil Price conductor on "Old Henry". This eight day accommodation derived its name from its engineer, good old Uncle Henry Lammers, rest his soul, who has gone to his reward, and who was as good an engineer as ever pulled a throttle. The sight of Lammers, Fliettag his fireman, and Conductor Price was a familiar sight for many years on the K. C. from Richmond to Rowland, and so long did they traverse the road that the train came to be known as "Old Henry". Fliettag is still on the job to welcome Phil Price back to his old run.

Mrs. Greenleaf Severely Burned.

It was with sincere regret that we learned of a serious accident which befell Mrs. J. E. Greenleaf in Richmond last week. She was standing before an open fire when in some unaccountable manner her clothing became ignited, and before assistance could reach her she was severely burned. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Emma Kauffman of this city hurried to her bedside. Reports as to her condition are all but favorable.

Later—As we go to press, the sad news comes that Mrs. Greenleaf died at four o'clock Thursday morning. The funeral will be held in Richmond, Friday afternoon, the exact time is not yet known.

Circuit Court.

The March term of the Garrard Circuit Court convened Monday morning with His Honor Judge Charles A. Hardin presiding. Hon. George D. Florence was present promptly to see that the interests of the Commonwealth did not suffer; Sheriff George A. Ballard was present with his deputies, Messrs. Curt Robinson, B. F. Robinson, Thomas Ballard and S. H. Estes. Mr. Curt Robinson handling the gavel. Mr. W. B. Mason with his deputy Miss Sue Shelby Mason presiding at the books. Judge Hardin's instruction to the grand jury was a very comprehensive one, dealing with all manner of crime, dwelling at length, upon the illegal sale of liquor and the carrying of concealed deadly weapons, he sought to impress upon the minds of the jury the necessity if possible of removing the cause of crime, and thereby avoiding the actual crime, and the expense to the state incident to the prosecution of criminals, as well as the beneficial effects upon the morals of the community.

The grand-jury is as follows:
N. J. Gosney, Foreman, John Dudderar, W. H. Lackey, B. M. Lear, A. J. Rice, J. R. Haselden, J. W. Huffman, J. B. Lawson, A. C. Baird, A. F. Sanders, Alex Layton, Ed Smith.

PETIT JURY

J. T. Ralston, W. R. Cook, Robert Cox, J. W. Simpson, Forest Calico, W. E. Moss, W. L. Lawson, H. B. Cox, George Smith Sr., C. F. Ison, A. D. Hughes, J. A. Beasley, James House, Tom Wherritt, J. H. Posy, J. T. Henry, R. F. Agee, Wm. Lear, J. T. Holtzclaw, J. E. Anderson, C. A. Arnold, W. S. Embury, Givens Terrill, V. A. Lear.

The criminal docket is being rapidly cleared of the petty cases, about forty of minor importance having already been disposed of, notwithstanding the illness of Commonwealth's Attorney Florence, County Attorney Joe E. Robinson looking after their prosecution, and he is surely seeing that no roses are strewn along the pathway of the transgressor.

Ivay Denny who carved Mote Kavanaugh on the Buckeye pike several months ago was given 2 to 5 years in the pen, both colored. Lewis Yantis, shooting Robert Gibbs, both colored, dismissed. Bud Woolwine, selling soft drinks without the formality of securing a license was fined $60.

James Check unlawful sale of whiskey, $60.

John Opp, same offense, same penalty.

Col. Jefferson, same offense, same penalty.

Chas. Johnson, same offense, not guilty.

Dillard Simpson Concealed weapons, $60. and ten days.

Several of the parties already under indictment for murder and who are now in jail have their trials set for next week.

The trial of Charles Humber and Alvin Thomas, charged with shooting James Jones, which was transferred here from the Lincoln Circuit Court, and which resulted in a mistrial at the last term of court, is set for today (Thursday) and a special venire of 50 men has been summoned from Boyle county from which to select a jury.

The grand jury has already turned six indictments into court, among which is included one against Othol East for barn burning, one against Luther Simpson for barn burning and another against Luther Simpson for attempted barn burning. East and Simpson are both in jail.
